Dr. W. Joseph (Joe) Pace, Jr., DDS

Dr. Joe Pace is a native of Northern Virginia and a 1985 graduate of the New York University College of Dentistry. He opened his Vienna dental practice in 1991 after serving three years as a Lieutenant in the U.S. Navy Dental Corps.

Dr. Pace's attention to detail and insistence on a high standard of care put him at the forefront of today's dentistry. His patients enjoy the benefits of his continuing education in dentistry and his affinity for the technology and techniques that make his patients comfortable and healthy. His cosmetic dentistry patients benefit from his personal passion for the arts; he enjoys painting and sculpting in his leisure time.

Dr. Pace is a member of the American Dental Association, the Virginia Dental Association, and the Northern Virginia Dental Society. He earned the designation of Fellow of the Academy of General Dentistry and retains this membership status in the Academy through continuing education. He is an active member of the Vienna Rotary Club.

Dr. Pace is an alumnus of George Marshall High School, the University of Virginia and New York University School of Dentistry. He lives with his wife and son in Falls Church. His hobbies include his family, fine art and painting, travel, music, and renovating his home.
